A LETTER FROM OUR DIRECTOR

To our beloved community,

Something I keep coming back to is how quietly this work changes lives. Not in dramatic, public ways, but in the moments no one sees. A woman pressing play on a podcast during a sleepless night. A man in rural Kentucky joining a satsang over Zoom and realizing he's not alone on this path. A student on a full scholarship writing to tell us the course gave her permission to grieve.

None of that happens without you. Every teaching that stayed free, every seat that was offered to someone who couldn't pay, every gathering that held space for a stranger to become family. That was your generosity at work.

With love,

"Words don't get there, but the impact of Ram Dass, Maharaji, and the LSRF Satsangs, for me, continues to be immeasurable, ineffable, and magical. I carry the love forward and to try to be of service to others in small ways and more. So, so very grateful to all of you!"

We are never alone.

Whether through our biannual Ram Dass Legacy Retreats in Boone, NC and Maui, HI or in the living rooms of local *Ram Dass Fellowship Communities across the globe, or via monthly video-calls with the Virtual Fellowship Groups - it's true what Thich Nhat Hanh said; "The next guru is the sangha."

In 2025 we were collectively able to fulfill Ram Dass's directive to keep these teachings alive through each and every one of you, our dearest satsang.

"These gatherings remind me I'm not alone."

Ram Dass' Psychedelic Legacy

Ram Dass's journey began in a psychology lab at Harvard, took a deep dive into psychedelics, and transformed into a lifetime of spiritual practice. As a grandfather of the psychedelic movement, LSRF made sure Ram Dass' legacy remained part of the conversation.

Whether through a 50-foot geodesic dome in the middle of the Black Rock Desert or in the scientific scene at MAPS, in 2025 we met seekers exactly where they were.

Psychedelic Science 2025 Denver, CO

From featured panels with Raghu Markus, Spring Washam, Anthony Bossis, and Leonard Pickard, to an intimate meditation dome immersive with ArtDrop, Ram Dass' psychedelic legacy and heart space were fully represented at PS25. Outside of the conference in partnership with PORTAL, we premiered a new 360° immersive film produced by David Starfire and Mangala Dolinar, chronicling Ram Dass' story from psychedelic exploration to conscious dying.

Burning Man Immersion Black Rock City, NV

Through the generosity of fellow devotees who built and donated a 50-foot geodesic dome, Ram Dass found his way to one of Burning Man's most traveled crossroads in 2025, with daily kirtan, aarti, yoga, and his complete teachings offered freely to all who entered this heart space.

One Message. Many Messengers.

The message Ram Dass carried home from India was simple: love everyone. In 2025, it traveled through a new book, beloved teachers, musicians, and a community that keeps passing it along.

New Book: There Is No Other

In a world pulling apart, Ram Dass offers a way back to one another. There Is No Other was edited by Parvati Markus after his passing and named one of the Best Spiritual Books of 2025.

Beyond the page, the message reached people through podcasts, music, video, and Inner Academy, our online home for live courses, retreat livestreams, and community.

Love. Serve. Remember

Carrying on this legacy of love, together.

Looking back on 2025, we think of all of the satsang gatherings, every teacher who shared their heart, every artist who lent their voice, every volunteer who offered their time, and every partner who opened a new door. Together with the staff and board, this sangha carried Ram Dass's teachings to the people who needed them most. We are deeply grateful for every one of you.
