A Letter from the Team

Dear Friends,

This year has been a beautiful reminder of what we can create together. Because of you, these teachings have reached more people, deepened connections, and opened hearts in ways we could only dream of.

We've put together this report to share the journey with you—to reflect on what's been accomplished, how this community continues to grow, and the generosity that makes it all possible. Every day, we see these teachings come to life—whether through a podcast reaching someone new, a heartfelt moment in the Fellowship, or the shared stillness of a retreat. This work isn't just something we do—it's something we build together.

With your support, we launched Ram Dass' Inner Academy, a space where seekers can gather, learn, and deepen into the teachings. The Fellowship has become a living, breathing satsang, meeting regularly to explore what it means to walk this path together. Our retreats in Boone and Maui created space for deep connection, with scholarships and livestreams ensuring access for all. The Be Here Now Network continued to share wisdom freely through the podcasts, while our collaborations in music, psychedelics, and art opened new doors for experiencing Ram Dass' teachings in fresh and meaningful ways.

At the heart of this work is community. You are the reason these teachings continue to reach so many.

Your generosity, presence, and belief in this mission fuel everything we do.

We're so grateful to be on this journey with you.

With love,

Raghu & the LSRF Team

The Heart of It All

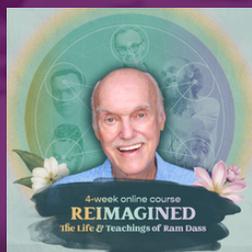

Ram Dass' Inner Academy

This year, we launched Ram Dass' Inner Academy—a curated, interactive platform that brings together biannual live courses, retreat livestreams, and over 100 hours of teachings from Ram Dass and our family of wisdom teachers. It's something we've been building toward for years, and thanks to the support of our members, we were able to offer over 120 need-based scholarships in its first year, ensuring no one was turned away for lack of funds.

* Centered in the Storm: Awakening Our Inner Refuge

Offered completely free of charge, this 10-day live course brought over 7,700 participants together for daily teachings and practices with wisdom keepers like Sharon Salzberg and Krishna Das—cultivating tools to meet life's challenges with resilience and compassion.

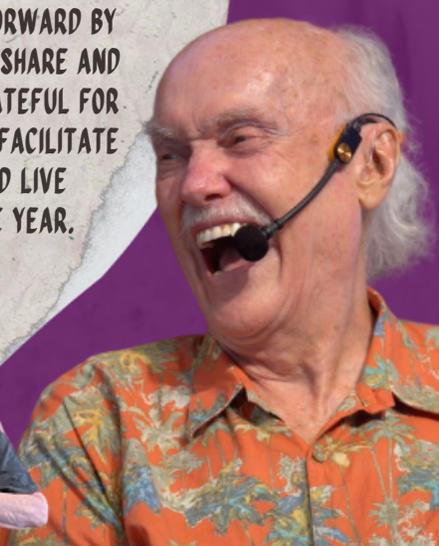

* Reimagined: Life & Teachings of Ram Dass

This four-week live course revisited Ram Dass' core teachings through dharma talks, practices, and community connection. With 873 participants, we explored what it means to live with love, service, and awakening in daily life.

HONORING OUR TEACHERS

RAM DASS' LEGACY IS CARRIED FORWARD BY THE TEACHERS WHO CONTINUE TO SHARE AND EXPAND HIS WISDOM. WE ARE GRATEFUL FOR ALL OF THE TEACHERS WHO HELP FACILITATE OUR COURSES, RETREATS, AND LIVE DISCUSSIONS THROUGHOUT THE YEAR.

The Be Here Now Network - Expanding the Circle

Voices of Wisdom, Carried Forward

The Be Here Now Network has come a long way this year, thanks to the incredible listeners who continue to support us. With your help, we expanded the network—adding The Four Sacred Gifts with Anita Sanchez, sharing the profound teachings of Krishnamurti through Freedom from the Known, and bringing more insightful conversations through the Explorer's Club psychedelic talks on the BHNN Guest Podcast. We also launched GoOd Mornings with Curly Nikki, offering daily wisdom rooted in spirituality and self-discovery. Plus, we introduced Patreon, giving listeners an ad-free experience while keeping the network open to all.

Behind the scenes, our team has been busy editing episodes, sound designing, managing updates to beherenownetwork.com, building sponsorships, creating shareable clips, and writing thoughtful show notes that help bring each episode's message to life.

Thank you for making it possible. Your support allows us to keep our podcasts growing.

Retreats & Benefits:

Bringing Ram Dass' Teachings to Life

There's something special about gathering in person—about sitting together in practice, sharing stories, and creating moments that stay with us long after we leave.

This year, we took an exciting step toward long-term sustainability by hosting benefit events to help fund the future of LSRF's work. In Santa Fe and Denver, we brought community together through music, art, and conversation in celebration of Ram Dass' legacy. We're excited to offer more regional gatherings like this in the future.

Whether in the Blue Ridge Mountains at our annual Summer Mountain Retreat or on Ram Dass' beloved island of Maui for our annual reunion, there is no mistaking the power of being together in community. To maintain our commitment to accessibility, we were able to offer both need-based scholarships and livestreamed retreat sessions.

ATTENDING THIS RETREAT ON A SCHOLARSHIP CHANGED MY LIFE. I NEVER IMAGINED I'D BE ABLE TO SIT IN THE PRESENCE OF THESE TEACHINGS. THANK YOU FOR MAKING THIS POSSIBLE.

THE LIVESTREAM ALLOWED ME TO PARTICIPATE FROM ACROSS THE WORLD. THE TEACHINGS REACHED ME IN A WAY I COULDN'T HAVE EXPECTED, AND I FELT TRULY CONNECTED TO THE COMMUNITY.

Bringing the Teachings to You

Ram Dass' wisdom shows up far beyond retreats—through music, books, and simple reminders that meet people where they are.

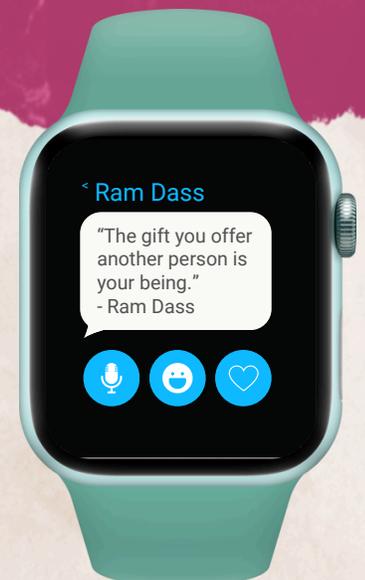

* New Collaborations in Sound and Story

This year, we supported new music releases with artists like Papadosio, Boreta, and East Forest, keeping Ram Dass' voice moving through sound. We also released Dying to Know as a book for the first time—a richly visual edition of the beloved film, complete with archival photos and psychedelic art exploring the journey Ram Dass and Timothy Leary shared.

EXPANDING ACCESS THROUGH EVERYDAY MOMENTS

Every day, people connect with Ram Dass' teachings through a wide range of free offerings—including daily SMS messages, weekly newsletters, curated content on social media, and our 24/7 YouTube livestream. These resources make the teachings easy to access, wherever and whenever they're needed.

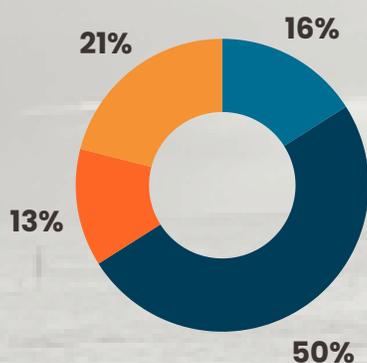

Finances – Transparency and Shared Commitment

Supporting the Teachings, Together

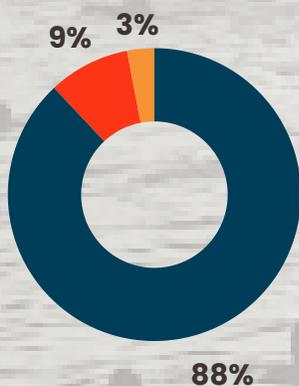

Carrying forward Ram Dass’ legacy is a collective effort rooted in love, service, and remembrance. Each course, podcast, retreat, and resource is created with care and supported by the generosity and participation of this community. Together, this work continues to bring these invaluable teachings to all who seek them.

In 2024, we invested nearly $3 million into programs and offerings to keep Ram Dass’ teachings accessible for all. Staying true to our commitment to inclusion, we continued offering free and low-cost resources even when it led to an operating deficit. Eighty-eight percent of spending went directly to programs, with just twelve percent supporting operations and fundraising. Looking ahead, we’re strengthening our fundraising efforts to ensure long-term sustainability, keeping this wisdom alive for future generations.
